

Open Call for Application

Open Spaces: Religion and Democracy in Indonesia and beyond.

Workshop & Excursion to Bandung and Jakarta, Indonesia | 17-25 May 2019.

foto: Pandu Adnyana

Bali, Borobudur, Parijs van Java? There is much more to learn about Indonesia – the world's largest Muslim-majority, but multi-ethnic, and archipelago country! A joint delegation up to 12 B.A. and M.A. students and lecturers from Philosophy, Political Science, Catholic Theology, and Protestant Theology is going to investigate Indonesia's uniqueness. Learn more about the challenges and achievements in the developing world in an integrative, intense, and interdisciplinary setting at one of Indonesia's leading universities, Parahyangan University, Bandung. We make you confident with the world's most dynamic region.

Key Data

- Kickoff Meeting 6 February 14:00 hrs
- Full-Day Workshop 2-3 May (mandatory)
- Excursion 17-25 May
- English as Language of Instruction
- 3 ECTS for Presentation = Full Seminar in Your Study Program
- Mainly Funded by the Faculty of Humanities and Theology
- Symbolic Payment of 300 EUR p. P.
- Apply with Transcript, CV, and a short Letter of Motivation (in English)
- Application Deadline 20 January 2019

foto: Adrian Fajriansyah

Please submit your application (single pdf) and/or your questions to matthias.heise@tu-dortmund.de.

We look forward to researching with you!